the ways we give back and everyone with time is encouraged to come out and assist the seniors in turning pens.

The first President's Challenge is this month and your piece is due at the meeting to be considered. The objective is very broad, in that you have to turn something having to do with, or related to a flower or flowers. There will be a beginner's category and a not-a-beginner category. And remember if you incorporate something from the last couple of demonstrations you could receive something extra in your prize packet.

The annual Southwest Association of Turners (SWAT) symposium is coming up in August 25-27 in Waco. Online registration is open through their website <https://www.swaturners.org> and if you want a hotel room, I would go ahead a book a room.

See you at meeting May 16!

Hey Woodturners!

Can you believe it is already May? For me it means the end of soccer season, Mother's Day and my wife's birthday. It also means we are near the end of the school year and graduation ceremonies. I have a couple of pens in the que that I'm making for some graduating seniors.

Speaking of pens, the Tollys have queued up a number of pen blanks and kits for seniors at American Youth Works. On May 31, from 9-12 in the morning the club hosts an event at the school (that place where we meet and store the lathe) for senior students to turn themselves a pen. This is one of

The American Association of Woodturners is "Dedicated to Providing Education, Information and Organization to Those Interested in Woodturning." In keeping with the standards of our National Organization, the Central Texas Woodturners Association hereby gives permission for all other woodturning chapters, organizations, magazines and newspapers to use any materials contained herein for the benefit of all woodturners everywhere. We ask that credit be given for the source of the material.

Demonstration Jimmy Tolly Mason Jar Lids

Jimmy Tolly demonstrated his techniques for creating beautiful jar lids! These are especially lovely to give Mom on her day. Take a typical jar and creating a kitchen jewel, or a jar full of pennies for your kids or grand-kids. CTWA thanks Jimmy for his terrific presentation.

Editor's Turn

I've served many organizations, and frankly volunteer organizations are without doubt the best.

CTWA is growing in size and structure. We are now a non-profit and creating bylaws with a governing board. This doesn't really mean anything different in the way the club runs, it simply means that we can accept donations from patrons who wish to have those donations provide tax credit. Special thanks go to Pat Jenkins for shepherding this effort through! In addition to this service, Pat has provided the club with outstanding demonstrations for the past year and half.

We are an educational club, a service club, and a heck-of-a-lot-of fun club!

I am always so impressed by the way our members volunteer and help each other out.

I've had to miss several meetings these past few months, and I am so appreciative of Marcia Tolly and Charlie Kay to help me gather information about the business meeting, the gallery labels, and in general give me the freedom to be sick, or busy, or out of town visiting my family.

Because of these two, I can keep producing a newsletter that keeps our members informed.

Drew Shelton is volunteering the coordination of the next Beginner's class. This is a lot of work and Drew deserves praise for this volunteer effort. In addition, Drew is the man up front bringing beautiful, professional-grade pictures for the website and the newsletter.

Vaden Mohrmann is providing wonderful service to the club as the president. AND he keeps the website beautifully up to date.

Dwight Schaeper stepped up to being our President-elect. I've worked with 9 presidents in my tenure at CTWA and I know Dwight will be terrific this next year.

Steven Green provides the insight into the Southwest Turners Association (SWAT) activities, and represents the CTWA club through the sharing of information.

Betty Hager and Clyde Little not only support CTWA, they also serve on the SWAT board.

Johnny Tolly, Marcia Tolly and Jimmy Tolly provide so much to the club. Particularly by coordinating the upcoming American Youth Works senior pen turning. Jimmy is managing this year's pen turning event.

They additionally serve as demonstrators for our club and other regional clubs. They are also the point persons for all the efforts that go into setting up and tearing down SWAT. Their efforts to promote members to make Beads of Courage boxes for children is nothing short of amazing.

Greg Vest is amazing providing his incredible professional talent to our video and sound systems. He also is the point person for coordinating the volunteers in our room. This includes hosts, and relief video/sound recording.

Len Brissette provides the treasurer accounting for the club. This was a job done by Ed Roberts for years. This volunteer work is mostly in the background, but essential to the health and accountability for the club.

Blair Feller, our membership chair, is amazing at providing name tags, and keeping up with membership dues and bringing new members up to speed about the club.

Suzi Parker had the unenviable task of wrestling the thousands of discs in our library. Working with Greg, she was able to bring the library into manageable terms.

Erik Peterson has the job of finding various volunteers to open up their shops for the club each first Saturday.

There are countless people that help at first Saturday and various trainings. I'm sure I'll leave someone out, and please forgive me when that happens. To name a few are: Craig Timmerman, Jim Spano, Stacey Hager, Clyde & Pat Little, and Drew Shelton. Our first Saturdays typically have around 30-40 people each month! To say the least there are volunteers each month that help set up and take down chairs, tables, lathes, a/v equipment.

Lets not forget all the turners who bring their creations, no matter their talent level, to the gallery and bring back each month! Selling these drawing tickets for the bring back items helps CTWA keep our costs down to provide classes and equipment.

This is a fantastic club. When I first joined in 2008, we had around 60 members. Now, we have almost that many who show up at meetings, and many more who come when they can, like me.

It is my pleasure and honor to bring this newsletter to you each month. Lest I be remiss, I must again thank Johnny, Marcia and Jimmy Tolly for reading the newsletter before it gets to you. The best editor is always the one who isn't reading her/his own writing.

So, thank you all members and visitors for keeping this club strong! If you are interested in volunteering in any capacity, just let anyone on the board know. We will love having your talents.

In the interim—

Keep turning it on!

Craig Timmerman has been invited to be a demonstrator at the 2017 Utah Woodturning Symposium. The Utah Symposium is the longest consecutive woodturning conference in the world. It will be held May 11-13 at the UCCU Events Center on the Utah Valley University campus in Orem, Utah. Other demonstrators this year include Nick Agar, Stuart Batty, Rex Burningham, Kip Christensen, Kirk DeHeer, Barbara Dill, Karen Freitas, Kurt Hertzog, Greg Jensen, John Jordan, Dale Larsen, Mike Mahoney, Guilio Marcolongo, Wesley Piley, Dick Sing, Curt Theobald, John Wessels, and Tom Wirsing. for 2017, I had the privilege of meeting with the SWAT board and other club representatives on April 22nd to get the latest information on what's happening for SWAT 2017.

Go to <http://swaturners.com> and click on registration. You'll be directed to a page that is a one-shop for all SWAT. In other words, you can register, purchase a handbook, purchase dining/banquet tickets and even order your t-shirt, polo shirt and/or denim shirt in your choice of sizes. This really makes it simple while at the registration booth, as all will be provided at once.

Like last year, CTWA will sponsor the TEXAS North room for presentations by local demonstrators. I'll be passing around sign-up sheets for Hosts and A/V assistance for TEXAS North. Please consider volunteering your time and talent for one or more of the nine sessions held there.

As always, Operations will be coordinated by our own Marcia Tolly with the help of Johnny, Jimmy. I'm sure that they will be asking for additional assistance from the club's membership to help them set-up and tear down before and after the symposium.

Even if they are NOT Woodturners, consider bringing you spouse or significant other to SWAT. Thru the SWAT website, enrollment in Family Programs is taking place for: Fused Glass Jewelry, Zentangle, Crocheting, Quilting and many other activities. They're even going to have a session on how to play Mahjong that I may be joining myself.

Additionally tours of the Baylor Museums and the Homestead Heritage Traditional Crafts Village will take place. Maybe a trip to Chip and Joanna Gains' Magnolia Market interests some, the shuttle busses to the silos run right by the conference center.

So, what are you waiting for? Register and join us for the best regional woodturning symposium in the states. — Steve Green

Business Meeting

Vaden Mohrmann opened with a welcome

Pat Jenkins reported on the 401C3. Papers were filed, waiting for the certificate of formation to come back. By Laws are getting in order then something about doing it on line?

Visitors: Evan Martin from Brady
Updates: SWAT, Vaden talked about them needing ticket sales people and asked if we would raise our hands if we were interested. It was a unanimous NO.

BEGINNERS CLASS, Drew Shelton said he had one spot left but still sign up if interested because there is usually a drop out or two that occurs.

Gallery: by Vaden

Pen Turning: Johnny Tolly said the pen turning is usually at the end of May first of June and will send out a group email when he finds out from Johnny Perales. Be prepared to help please.

Demonstration: Pat Jenkins introduced Jimmy Tolly. His demonstration was on "How to turn Mason Jar Lids"

Presidents Challenge: Vaden reminded us of the presidents' challenge for next month. It has to do with flowers AND for extra points see if you can incorporate the last two demos from Len Brissette and Jimmy Tolly

Meeting Location

The CTWA meets at American YouthWorks, 1901 East Ben White Boulevard (Texas 71) in south Austin. The building is on the south side of Ben White, just east of Interstate 35. The best entry is off Woodward Street, just south of a little strip center. You enter an alleyway into a lighted parking lot. We will enter through the back door. As you drive in, you will see a truck dock in the back of the building with a big roll-up white door. The entryway is just to the right of the truck dock. Folks coming from the north may want to exit I-35 at Woodward and proceed south on Woodward across Ben White.
